Jack's Letter to Canadians

CANADIANS WERE SURPRISED AND SADDENED at the sudden passing of the Honourable Jack Layton, Leader of the Loyal Opposition, early Monday morning. Whether you agreed with his political views or not, Mr. Layton had a dramatic impact upon the Canadian political scene and perhaps for many Canadians, on how they saw themselves and our country.

Prior to his death, he wrote a parting letter to his NDP comrades and all Canadians, which has been posted on the federal New Democratic Party's website. Although it is not our intent to provide a political forum for any one political party or agenda, we present Mr. Layton's letter, as a final tribute to a great Canadian.

A letter to Canadians from the Honourable Jack Layton

August 20, 2011
Toronto, Ontario

Dear friends,

Tens of thousands of Canadians have written to me in recent weeks to wish me well. I want to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtful, inspiring and often beautiful notes, cards and gifts. Your spirit and love have lit up my home, my spirit, and my determination.

Unfortunately my treatment has not worked out as I hoped. So I am giving this letter to my partner Olivia to share with you in the circumstance in which I cannot continue.

I recommend that Hull-Aylmer MP Nycole Turmel continue her work as our interim leader until a permanent successor is elected.

I recommend the party hold a leadership vote as early as possible in the New Year, on approximately the same timelines as in 2003, so that our new leader has ample time to reconsolidate our team, renew our party and our program, and move forward towards the next election.

A few additional thoughts

To other Canadians who are on journeys to defeat cancer and to live their lives, I say this: Please don't be discouraged that my own journey hasn't gone as well as I had hoped. You must not lose your own hope. Treatments and therapies have never been better in the face of this disease. You have every reason to be optimistic, determined, and focused on the future.

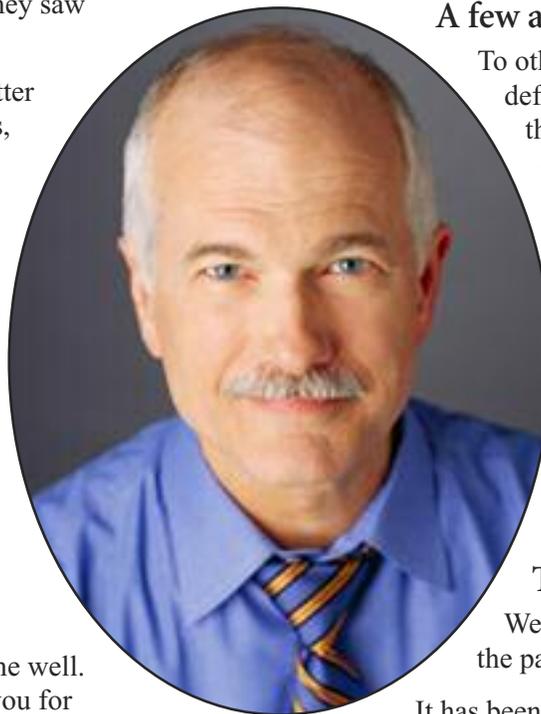

My only other advice is to cherish every moment with those you love at every stage of your journey, as I have done this summer.

To the members of my party

We've done remarkable things together in the past eight years.

It has been a privilege to lead the New Democratic Party and I am most grateful for your confidence, your support, and the endless hours of volunteer commitment you have devoted to our cause.

There will be those who will try to persuade you to give up our cause. But that cause is much bigger than any one leader. Answer them by recommitting with energy and determination to our work. Remember our proud history of social justice, universal health care, public pensions and making sure no one is left behind.

Let's continue to move forward. Let's demonstrate in everything we do in the four years before us that we are ready to serve our beloved Canada as its next government.

To the members of our parliamentary caucus

I have been privileged to work with each and every one of you. Our caucus meetings were always the highlight of my week. It has been my role to ask a great deal from you. And now I am going to do so again.

Canadians will be closely watching you in the months to come. Colleagues, I know you will make the tens of thousands of members of our party proud of you by demonstrating the same seamless teamwork and solidarity that has earned us the confidence of millions of Canadians in the recent election.

To my fellow Quebecers

On May 2nd, you made an historic decision.

You decided that the way to replace Canada's Conservative federal government with something better was by working together in partnership with progressive-minded Canadians across the country.

You made the right decision then; it is still the right decision today; and it will be the right decision right through to the next election, when we will succeed, together.

You have elected a superb team of New Democrats to Parliament. They are going to be doing remarkable things in the years to come to make this country better for us all.

To young Canadians

All my life I have worked to make things better. Hope and optimism have defined my political career, and I continue to be hopeful and optimistic about Canada. Young people have been a great source of inspiration for me.

I have met and talked with so many of you about your dreams, your frustrations, and your ideas for change. More and more, you are engaging in politics because you want to change things for the better. Many of you have placed your trust in our party.

As my time in political life draws to a close I want to share with you my belief in your power to change this country and this world.

There are great challenges before you, from the overwhelming nature of climate change to the unfairness of an economy that excludes so many from our collective wealth, and the changes necessary to build a more inclusive and generous Canada.

Now here's something to smile about.

Tony Martin & Jack Layton on their visit to the Island, May 19, 2009

I believe in you. Your energy, your vision, your passion for justice are exactly what this country needs today. You need to be at the heart of our economy, our political life, and our plans for the present and the future.

And finally, to all Canadians: Canada is a great country, one of the hopes of the world. We can be a better one - a country of greater equality, justice, and opportunity. We can build a prosperous economy and a society that shares its benefits more fairly.

We can look after our seniors. We can offer better futures for our children. We can do our part to save the world's environment. We can restore our good name in the world.

We can do all of these things because we finally have a party system at the national level where there are real choices; where your vote matters; where working for change can actually bring about change.

In the months and years to come, New Democrats will put a compelling new alternative to you.

My colleagues in our party are an impressive, committed team. Give them a careful hearing; consider the alternatives; and consider that we can be a better, fairer, more equal country by working together.

Don't let them tell you it can't be done.

My friends, love is better than anger. Hope is better than fear. Optimism is better than despair. So let us be loving, hopeful and optimistic.

And we'll change the world.

All my very best,
Jack Layton

Two young boys walked into a pharmacy one day, picked out a box of tampons and proceeded to the checkout counter.

The man at the counter asked the older boy, "Son, how old are you?" "Eight," the boy replied.

The man continued, "do you know what these are used for?"

The boy replied, "not exactly, but they aren't for me. They're for him. He's my brother. He's four. We saw on TV that if you use these you would be able to swim and ride a bike. Right now, he can't do either."

Dear Ann and the staff of Ann's Café:

Thank you for making a valiant go of the restaurant business for 21 spectacular years. About 8 years ago, on our first visit to St. Joe, my now late father and I sought out breakfast after renting Bob Courtney's "Moonfleet Cottage" for a few days.

I can't tell you how impressed we both were with your French Toast recipe, so much so my dad and I started calling St. Joe Island "French Toast island" on our subsequent visits. It was his favourite breakfast restaurant in North America.

It's really an amazing recipe, your French Toast; a true sight to behold as a pad of butter travels the distance from the top of the thick bread to the bottom and spreads its golden yellow goodness onto the plate, mixing with the cinnamon and St. Joe maple syrup.

Rest assured, you and your restaurant will be missed and your efforts as well as those of your staff who certainly touched the hearts and stomachs of Island residents and travelers alike. I can't imagine how you found such a talented pool of people such as Lisa, who could remember our order months later - when we only visited the island twice a year, and then only for 2 or 3 days at a stretch.

As nice as it is, the island won't be the same without the usual fruit of your labors; Ann's Cafe is what truly drew the two of us to the island. Strange how the border guards never believed me when I told them the reason for our visits to St. Joe. "Why's it's Ann's Cafe and some darn good French Toast!" About half the time they'd respond. "You drove over 300 miles each way for French Toast? Secondary check!"

But Ann, If they'd had experienced your restaurant and the French Toast they would have simply waved us on by after licking their lips in envy. It was certainly worth the hassle.

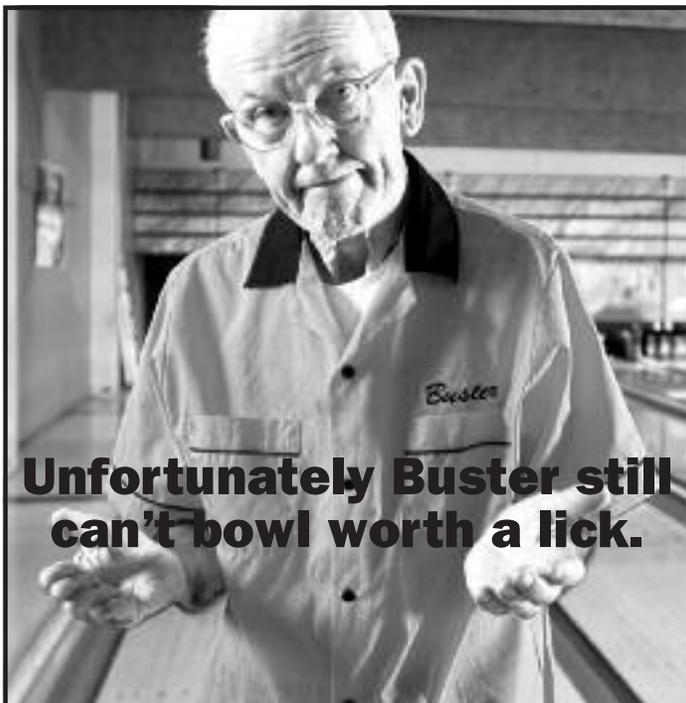

Thanks for bringing smile after smile after smile to my elderly dad's face with every bite of your restaurant's wonderful French Toast and friendly service. For those final years of enjoyment that we had together at your restaurant, I can never thank you enough.

Best wishes to you and your staff.

ST. JOSEPH ISLAND MUSEUM MOMENT

Hilton Beach and How it Got its Name:

Over the past ten years I have been asked many times when and why did the name Hilton Beach replace Marksville. Never able to fully understand or explain this even though I have read several different facts pertaining to this. I could not justify the dates or just what happened.

Now I know some of you old timers will say I knew that, but why not explain it to the dumb curator. Yesterday while going through files to put them on acid free and store properly I came across a Xerox copy of an Act to incorporate the Village of Hilton Beach in 1923. It states in the second article: "From and after the passing of this Act, the inhabitants of the said unincorporated Villages of Hilton and Marksville and those portions of the Township of Hilton adjoining the said unincorporated villages and comprised within the limits and boundaries hereinafter set forth and described shall be and they are hereby created a corporation or body politic under the name of the Village of Hilton Beach."

It has been written "Major William Kingdom Rains and his son had to pull into shore because of bad weather and walk home. He said because of this big hill we shall call this Hill Town, and over the years it was shortened to Hilton." Apparently the shore portion of the Village was called Marksville after John Marks who started the first Post Office there.

Now we know the rest of the story.

The Village of Hilton Beach is now 98 years old and is a thriving little tourist town with a permanent population of 150 people. A new Council Chambers and Marina with an Open Air Market every Saturday in the summer make it a pleasant place for tourists and residents alike to enjoy the comforts of rural life on St. Joseph Island. Some of the events during the summer are the Car Show, Community Nite, and Art at the Docks.

Classified Ads and Announcements

The Island Clippings is pleased to publish personal Classified Advertising and Public Service Announcements of 50 words or less, free of charge to Island residents, as a community service. Other than personal for sale ads (please limit three items) the announcement must be of value to the community. We reserve the right to decide if the ad is of service to the community.

Ads or announcements for non-residents, businesses, or items or services, to be sold for profit, or generate income or events charging an entrance fee as well as items valued at over $1,000. will incur a nominal charge of $10. plus HST. We reserve the right to determine if a fee is required. We reserve the right to edit down to 50 words or less.

Ads or announcements will appear in one issue, but may be repeated, to a maximum of three consecutive weeks (space permitting). Advertiser must resubmit ad each week. To ensure space for everyone, please limit your content to a maximum of 50 words.

Ads can be placed by: Email to: islandclippings@gmail.com or by phone 705 246-1635 (from 9 – 5, Mon-Fri) or fax 705 246-7060. Mail to: Island Clippings RR1, Hilton Beach, ON P0R 1G0
Or simply put it in one of our pick-up boxes conveniently located at Ambeault's, Kent's Corners and the Hilton Beach Post Office.

We know that many readers may be shocked at this "news" that the Island Clippings is charging for running Classified ads and Public Service Announcements and limiting how long they can be. How could we be so crass?

Actually, all we've done is move the copy describing our policy to this page from the back page - where it has been since July 16, 2009. We're not really changing our policy – we're just trying to bring attention to what it's always been, and hopefully to clarify things and make life a little easier for everyone.

Our only income from publishing the Island Clippings comes from advertising sales. Everything else is an expense.

Some people find $10 to be too much to spend on selling something for more than $1,000 – or promoting an event to which they're charging admission or selling tickets, or running a business – sometimes in direct competition with our valued regular advertisers, whose ads appear every week.

The policy also applies to organizations or institutions, even those which are charitable or non-profit, and all supporting good and worthy causes. We sympathize with, and support them all. We would love to, but we simply can't promote every cause and help sell every item for free, while we PAY for it as part of our production costs.

So this isn't really anything "new". We're proud to continue providing a community service by running most ads for free. We're simply trying to be fair to all parties by being clearer about what's chargeable and what's not.

We hope this helps everyone understand our policy and why we need to have it.

Deadline for display ads is 3 pm Mondays.
