Christmas Shopping on the Island An Island Clippings Special Report

AFTER WHAT SEEMS LIKE a very quick and short year, December and the Holiday Season have once again come to the Island. Again, we took a quick trip around the Island, just to see what Christmas gift ideas we could find, without even crossing the bridge. And once again, we were amazed and delighted to find so much from which to choose, right here on our doorstep!

Kent's Corners: Stained glass candle holders

Our first stop was to drop in on Dawn Tweedle at the Calico Hen. Dawn's store has always been the place to find just that right yarn for your favourite knitter. Now, in addition to the usual vast array of colourful yarns, check out the Bernat REALLY BIG Yarn at only $7.99. And from now until Christmas Eve, all yarn is 25% off!

Dawn also offers a assortment of Christmas ornaments, hand-painted by Hilton area resident Valerie Brown, ranging in price from $8 to $15. There's also a wide range of Bee Glo candles and don't miss the beautiful quartz candle-holders at just $13. Dawn also tells us that she has a new shipment of even more lovely candles due to arrive in the next day or two.

The store also features an excellent collection of unique hand-crafted jewellery, including a fine assortment of Christmas necklaces. Dawn specializes in making unique, one-of-a-kind pieces, and she's always happy to take on special orders to match that special item, such as a favourite article of clothing.

And here's something truly special – Dawn is also featuring a lovely, complete collection of Quilting books for sale, with part of the proceeds going to support the Children's Library!

If you still can't figure out what to get, Gift Certificates always make a wonderful present!

Once back outside, a few short steps took us to one of the Island's bright new jewels, the St. Joseph Island Market, where owners Tracy and Cole Howson are also right into the Christmas spirit.

Yes, you can get everything you'll need here to feed the family this holiday season. They also feature several special treats, like Silver Hills frozen breads which prove that baked goods can be both healthy and delicious. There's also novel candy cane hockey sticks and pucks for just $3.99 or try your hand at a Gingerbread House kit that, when you've finished, will be ready to decorate.

Have you tried their selection of Gourmet du Village dips yet? At under $4. each, you simply have to! Each of them is simply wonderful! You can also serve your dips with the full treatment with the 2 piece electric dip warmer at only $14.35.

And those Howsons are crafty indeed! One of the Market's best treats can be found right near the cash registers bearing the interesting name 'Ba-Donk-A-Donk'. It's actually attractive mason jars with burlap lid covers, filled with the dry ingredients for making delicious brownies. You simply add the 'wet' ingredients and Kaboom! you've got a batch of absolutely scrumptious brownies! 'Ba-Donk-A-Donk' is exclusive to the Island Market and bears the deliciously sinful cutline "Cuz they're bad for you!" But at just $7.95, it's evily affordable!

If you're any kind of chef, or you're shopping for someone who is, be sure to check out the complete line of Paderno non-stick coated stainless steel bake and cookware. There's everything from little egg toss pans and tea pots to knife and cutlery sets, pots and pans and baking dishes, all excellent quality at terrific sale prices!

Can't decide on any one thing? Tracy and Cole would be also happy to make up a custom Gift Basket that's sure to appeal to any taste.

We then went next door to Moose Sweats where owner Peggy Chapman has done her usual wonderful job of loading her store from floor to ceiling with exquisite offerings. Where do we begin to describe Peggy's inventory of wonderful things? There's something to fit any budget or taste.

We noticed some lovely sparkly scarves at $15, trend-setting Bleu Bayou casual wear in the $65 range and some simply fantastic CMC jackets at $122.50. Peggy has more of her Hatley quality clothing, hand-made custom jewellery by Brianna Walsworth, an amazing assortment of attractive ornaments, decorative table coasters, beautiful quilts and pillow covers, art greeting cards by Canadian artists, Stephens metal sculp-

We were also quite taken with the array of 'Thermohair' socks and anklets, all hand-coloured by noted local textile artist Mireille Gagnon Moes. The perfect combination of warm-footed functionality with vibrant, artistic flair, these are no dull, drab thermal socks!

And you simply MUST see the outstanding glazed pottery bowls by Gordon Burke. Like everything else that Peggy carries, they're simply fantastic!

A short hop further up the street is yet another Island "must see" stop Ambeault's Confectionery. Once again, the mind boggles at the wide assortment of gifts that Jay and Cheryl have assembled for the budget-conscious shopper.

There's the McBloom line of skin care products, featuring a decadent, extremely rich cream. Match them up with a gift set of hand soaps and body cream, and you'll surely make someone you love happy.

You can start with small, personal items like lip balms and creams for only $2.99 – perfect as stocking stuffers. $4.99 will get you a “Travel Angel” visor clip that reminds you to “Never drive faster than your Guardian Angel can fly”.

Speaking of angels, check out their decorative and delicate ‘Angel’ and ‘Fairy’ figurines. There are ‘nice sentiment’ plaques like “Love, Laughter and Friends are Always Welcome”, assorted crafts and decorative clocks and dishes, and flameless candles.

And, at the back of the store is something really neat – how about a music CD by the “Island’s own” Breakmen, featuring Archie Pateman, or bright local talent Mike Cormier’s “New Love” CD. Both offer wonderful easy listening for any time of year and both are a “must” for any Island music library.

We then pointed the car eastward, heading for another of our regular stops at Kent’s Corners where once again, Judy and Ralph MacMichael have laid on quite a few Christmas gift ideas and new treasures!

We saw delightful stained glass sun catchers in a number of shapes, including an angel, fish, sailboat and lady bug, all in the $16 to $19 price range. They’re still carrying the ever-popular ‘Fisher Girl’ line of clothing and ‘light-up’ fishing gear, for under $40. and now they’ve gone even further with “Magic Boxer Shorts” and – you’ve got to see this – these teenie, tiny itty-bitty packages that, when you add water, expand up into a Top and Shorts outfit!

There's also nifty "Fiddling Frog" metal and brass candlesticks for only $8. or, on the more practical side, there's also ready-to-hang memo boards, great for displaying photos, memos, notes and reminders for only $14.99.

Kent's Corners can also help you and your family in capturing the mood and spirit of the Christmas season with a "2 for $5" special on Classic Christmas movies. They've got them all – Miracle on 34th Street, White Christmas, It's a Wonderful Life and more, plus the more light-hearted comedies, Christmas Vacation, Home Alone and the Santa Clause series.

And there's more for after Christmas! Judy and Ralph also carry a complete line of fireworks, for celebrating New Year's Eve in ear and eye-grabbing style.

Heading toward Hilton Beach, we stopped in at the Island Lumber Company, home of our Tim-Br Mart store, where James, Holly and Chris have even more great gift ideas!

For just $19.99, they have those nifty Aqua Globes that you might have seen offered on tv. They're perfect for keeping your flowers and house plants watered for up to 2 weeks. Made from hand-blown glass, they add a touch of extra beauty to your pots and planters, while providing the perfect solution to keeping your plants healthy with just the right amount of water.

You can also make the most of your garage or shed's floor and wall space with 26" 'metal look' finished plastic storage cabinets in 2 or 4 drawer configurations, starting

Holly proudly tells us that they now have access to TSC's complete line of products that can be delivered right her to the island, perhaps saving you a trip to the Soo!

And they have some great ideas for gifts you can give yourself! How about a custom built, hand-carved Queen Size Cedar Log bed? Right now, it's only $499 - you can save $100! They also have one of their fabulous Rosetta Stone fireplaces for only $599 – that's $200 off! Wow!

We simply could not leave Hilton Beach without a stop at Karen's Dream. This popular, treasure-filled browser's delight of a store is temporarily closed, as its owner Karen Scott remains in hospital, putting up a tremendous fight against cancer. Some of Karen's many friends and supporters have put up an Invitation to 'Join Karen's Team' by signing your name on the door. We were happy to add our names, and we invite everyone to stop by and add their names too. Let's all show Karen our love and support and our hopes of her getting well — and her wonderful store open again soon!

And then, there's Kentvale! Surely no shopping expedition would be complete without a visit to the Island's oldest and perhaps best-known store where, once again, we found much more than hardware, tools and equipment. Dave, Kim and Colleen have yet again amassed a terrific offering of Christmas goodies and gift ideas.

hardy work wear and warm winter socks from under $8 to all sizes of Kentvale and St. Joseph Island sweatshirts at just $15.99. There's stylish Work King lined and quilted shirts from $39.99 and, to keep your tootsies toasty and comfy, there's slippers and moccasins at $13.99 and $65.99 respectively.

For the young and young-at-heart, there's shelf after shelf crammed full with games, colouring and activity books, puzzles, crafts and stuffed animals. And toys! Lots and lots of toys! And what toys they don't have on the shelves, they can get – courtesy of Home Hardware's huge inventory of products, all accessible through their flyers and catalogue. But if you want to order something, you'd better not wait too long! The last day you can order something to arrive in time for Christmas is December 15th!

There's still lots more right in the store, along with oodles of Christmas decorations, wrapping and bows. There's Christmas tablecloths at just $15.99 and even Christmas-themed glass plates to go on them. You can also choose from an assortment of micro-fibre velour 'throws' - on sale right now for just $16.99.

And for when the Christmas wrapping is all over, here's another great idea – a Gift Wrap Storage Box! At $19.99 it offers a great storage solution for your leftover wrap, bags and tags. Or there's another "tidy" option you could just let the Kentvale staff make up one of their great custom Gift Packages for your favourite people, and let THEM have the headache of dealing with the leftover wrappings!

So folks, that's not all; not by a long shot! In fact, it's only the beginning! No matter what you're looking for and what you can afford, there are some terrific gift ideas

No Clippings in early January

THE ISLAND CLIPPINGS will be published up to and including our December 29, 2011 issue, after which we will be taking a three week break. Our first 2012 issue will therefore be on Thursday, January 26th.

Any special notices, announcements or ads for events within this period should be placed in time for our December 29th issue.

And Next Issue Will Be a Day Late!

DUE TO A FAMILY GATHERING this weekend, next week's issue will come out a day later than usual: we will deliver the issue to the post offices and local businesses on Thursday, December 15th, for arrival in your mailbox on Friday, December 16th.

We apologize for any inconvenience this might cause our readers and advertisers.

available right here on the Island. By shopping right here, you'll be saving yourself the hassle of going to the city, you'll save time and money and you'll be supporting your friends and neighbours – which helps our local economy, which helps everyone! It just makes sense, doesn't it?

Editor's Note: We hope we got all of our facts right in identifying products and prices. We apologize for any error or omission that we might have made.

Come out and join us for another great Shamrock Figure Skating Club pasta dinner at the Echo Bay Community Hall, from 4 to 6 pm on Saturday, December 10th. Admission is by donation. 50/50 tickets will be available and we will draw at 6 pm. Stick around for the Echo Bay Parade of Lights, followed by a tree lighting ceremony, caroling and a visit from Santa!

THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone who came to celebrate my 90th birthday on November 27th 2011, at the Royal Canadian Legion. I was overwhelmed in the highest form of how blessed I felt by the gratitude that will always remain in my heart. Also for the people who helped to make this celebration come together. Again Thank you very much everyone. Eleanor Adcock

Our Health Care Committee Renews its Mission

MONDAY NIGHT'S MEETING of the Central Algoma Rural Health Care Committee (often formerly referred to simply as 'the Steering Committee') could have gone either way. Originally commissioned by amalgamating the ad hoc citizen action Committees and representatives of the municipalities involved, the Committee was the central focus for the fight to save Matthews Memorial Hospital from closure by its parent, the Sault Area Hospital.

The Committee later expanded its mandate to include maintaining and enhancing our health care services. With the assurance by the North East Local Healthcare Integration Network (NE LHIN) that MMH would join the Thessalon and Blind River hospitals in a three-way rural health care partnership, it appeared that the group's primary mission had indeed been accomplished.

The Committee adjourned pending further action being required, and had not met since last May. In that time, two of the group's three Co-chairs, Tom Dalton and Jack Priest indicated their desire to move on to other priorities and opt out of their leadership positions.

Monday's agenda was centred on two questions:

- Should the Committee now disband? and if so,
- How should the funds remaining on hand be disbursed?

It didn't take long to answer question number 1! As member after member rose to speak, it quickly became clear that our local health care issues are far from settled – in fact, instead of seeing our services maintained or enhanced, we're seeing a decrease in services, as evidenced by the recent cessation of blood work at MMH for patients who are not rostered with the BridgeLink Medical Clinic. Both the Matthews Memorial Hospital Association and an ad hoc citizens' group are addressing this issue.

Nor has there been any definite word about how the amalgamation of the three hospitals is progressing, if at all. Both our former MP Tony Martin and MPP Mike Brown have now been replaced in the recent elections, leaving a possible 'disconnect' politically until their replacements, Bryan Hayes, MP and Mike Mantha, MPP are "brought up to speed" on the issues.

The Committee voted overwhelmingly that their work is indeed not yet finished, and re-dedicated itself to continuing the efforts to maintain and enhance our rural health care. Given the need to have the Committee's leadership "balanced" between municipal leaders, private citizens and health care groups, the Committee elected Echo Bay's Lynn Watson, Island Resident and MMHA Director Bruce Prout and MMHA Board Chair Connie Witty to the key positions of Co-Chairs.

The Committee will be moving quickly to take advantage of upcoming scheduled meetings to educate Messers Hayes and Mantha on this issues, and to seek their active support and involvement in finding and implementing rural health care solutions. Meetings are also being arranged with senior LHIN and Ministry of Health and Long Term Care officials, to determine where things now stand and to once again spur some positive action.

In the meantime, we commend the Committee on renewing its mission and we offer our congratulations and best wishes to the new Co-Chairs. The work they're doing is of vital importance to every person in every community in our area.

We'll continue to inform our readers of any and all developments.

Thanks to Jan Frech for sending us the "Key to Inner Peace"

A Doctor on TV said to have inner peace we should always finish things we start & we all could use more calm in our lives. I looked around my house to find things I'd started & hadn't finished, so I finished off a bottle of Merlot, a bottle of Chardonnay, a bottle of Baileys, a bottle of wum, the remainder of Valiuminun scriptins, an a box a chocletz. Yu haf no idr how fablus I feel rite now. Sned this to all who need inner pess. An telum u luvum.
