DOESN'T EVERYBODY JUST LOVE a good parade? We sure do, and the Village of Hilton Beach's Community Night on Saturday evening delivered just that. It had all of the required ingredients: the happy throng of people lining the road, the pomp and ceremony of marching bands and a great array of vintage cars and trucks, not to mention a couple of racing cars, all complete with lots and lots of noise and colour!

There were all of the terrific floats, each one a true work of creativity and surely a lot of fun for their builders and riders, almost all of whom were throwing treats out to the kids – young AND old – who scampered out like lightning to scoop them up.

All of this was followed by the other BIG ingredient, the flashing lights and wailing sirens as Hilton Union and Jocelyn Fire trucks and First Response ambulance rumbled and growled down the street.

The night didn't end with the parade though. Very few people actually left right away. Some wandered up and down the street, playing games, eating popcorn and stopping to chat with friends all along the way. Others disappeared to the village's eateries and bars for food, fun and music, while still others visited from one boat to another in the marina.

One very unwelcome visitor, the rain that had been forecast for the evening, turned out to be a “no show”, at least until much later. All in all, it was a wonderful evening in every aspect, in Hilton Beach!

One thing though .... we weren't sure quite what to make of one “fun” float. Who exactly are those “St. Joseph Island Rednecks”? They look familiar and we've definitely seen that hot, souped up and tricked out pickup truck of theirs around the island. We just can't quite place them. Of course, we can't speak for Hilton Beach residents, but we'uns from Jocelyn Township d'ruther use the more politically correct term “Mountain Folk” for ourselves!

Another Fantastic Quilt Show

By Carol Smith

THE 24TH ANNUAL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE QUILT SHOW and Sale on August 3, 4 & 5, 2012 at the St. Joseph Island Central School in Richards Landing was a great success! There were 370 visitors through the doors who viewed over 150 quilts, wall hangings and table covers & runners.

Norah McGuire-MacLeod of "Sew Little Time" ran two workshops on Saturday & Sunday called Pineapple Plus. All 19 participants completed a block and went home eager to start on the entire lap quilt. Participants learned a technique to make a complicated looking quilt block far simpler and quicker.

Vendors "Life's a Stitch", "A Mixed Bag", "Sew Little Time", Maudie's Cottage", The Quilt House", "Due North Designs", "Why Knot Knit" and Janet E. Johnson offered visitors an opportunity to see and buy the latest in fabrics, patterns, gizmos & gadgets, machines, quilts, jackets, vests, table runners, imaginative applique designs and more. Special Thanks to "Life's a Stitch" for allowing quilters to drop off and pick up items for the show at their store on Queen Street in the Sault. This year they collected 69 items.

Michelle Tulloch was voted Viewer's Choice with her machine-quilted Love of Pansies King Size Quilt. She acknowledged The Quilt House in the Sault for the beautiful quilting job. Door prizes were won by Phyllis Pugh from Hilton who took the table runner donated by Maudie's Cottage. Rose Tull from the Sault took the hand-made pillow donated by Moose Sweats and Diane Bomffard from Desbarats took the lap quilt donated by the St. Joseph Island Community Quilters.

First Prize for the challenge went to Diane Gerhart with a generous gift certificate from Calico Hen. Second Place went to Norma Shell with a gift certificate from Camille's Island Cafe and a bag of their special blend coffee created by St. Joseph Island Coffee Roasters. The challenge blocks will be added to over the next two years and made into an 1812 quilt for the Island Museum.

All events like our Quilt Show need the help from volunteers to be successful. To everyone who put in a shift, helped to set up and take down the show and worked behind the scenes in the sauna like atmosphere - Thank You! Special thanks to Siggy Hecker who designed our quilt frames & hanging systems and signs and keeps them in good repair year after year. Thanks to all the husbands, sons and daughters, visiting relatives and friends who helped. We cannot do it without you!

Mark your calendars for next year's show on August 2, 3 & 4, 2013. It will be the Quilt Show's 25th Anniversary so watch for something special!

'Wendell & Wheat' – A Great Date for Tuesday Evening!

THE AMAZING TORONTO-BASED MUSICAL DUO "Wendell & Wheat" is currently on a busy 12 date Northern Ontario tour, from Thessalon north to Red Rock, then back eastward to Little Current, then Sudbury. But next Tuesday, August 14th at 7 pm, they'll be right here on the new outdoor stage at the Richards Landing Centennial Grounds, brought to us by the Township of St. Joseph's Events Committee.

"Wheat" is Katherine Wheatley, renowned Canadian "Queen of Song". She's a gifted singer/songwriter and a pretty darn good guitarist as well. Her passion for music and song writing began with a $13 guitar ordered from the Sears Catalogue. After graduating from Queen's University with a geology degree, she spent five seasons in the Manitoba and African bushlands, gathering not only rock samples but material for her songs. It was only a matter of time before she left her tent and recorded her first album, Straight Line, which spent 17 weeks on the Top Ten Independent Charts. Her second CD, Habits and Heroes, garnered more praise from fans and critics alike and put her into a strong touring career. Since then, she hasn't spent much time with rocks.

Now, Katherine is a regular at folk festivals, concert series and clubs across Canada. Her music has been used for documentaries, tv series and films. She has been a featured vocalist on Stuart McLean's Vinyl Cafe, Morningside with Peter Gzowski, This Morning with Bernard St. Laurent, TVO's Studio Two, and CBC Radio's Vicki Gabareau Show. She performed her song "On A Beach In France" on CTV's Canada AM and Good Morning Canada to commemorate the anniversary of Dieppe. And she has released a third album, Landed –also to critical acclaim.

Speaking of playing guitar brings us to the 'Wendell' of the duo. To say that Wendell Ferguson plays guitar too would be nothing less than a gigantic understatement. He is SIX TIME CCMA (Canadian Country Music Association) Guitar Player of the Year (plus THREE TIME 'Backup Band of the Year' Award Winner), with several Juno and other award nominations also to his credit. And he too has hundreds of live concert, radio and television appearances under his belt.

Wendell has played with some of the biggest names in country music, including George Fox, Duane Steele, Tommy Hunter, Gordon Lightfoot, Cindy Church, The Wilkinsons, Shania Twain, Patty Loveless, Sylvia Tyson, The Laws, The Dixie Chicks and Lisa Brokop to name but a few. His guitar 'style' reflects the influence of the legendary Chet Atkins, with some Merle Travis and Jerry Reed thrown in for good measure, but another big part of Wendell's 'draw' is his wild and wickedly irreverent sense of humour that permeates all of his own music and explodes out of every performance.

His mother laments, "I wish he'd learn a trade, so I'd know what kind of work he's out of!" He also admits that he once tried to do comedy, but they all laughed at him.

Sounds like 'Wendell & Wheat' will make for a pretty great Tuesday evening! Tickets are $20 (children ages 12 and under are free) and can be purchased at the Township of St. Joseph Municipal Office, or at the door.

If you do go to see them, better take some aspirin and tissues along! One reviewer said of them "One will make your heart ache and the other will make your belly ache.", while another wit quipped "One didn't leave a dry eye in the house. The other didn't leave a dry seat."

ST. JOSEPH ISLAND MUSEUM MOMENT

By Jessica Patterson, Student

AS THE NEWEST STUDENT WORKER at the museum, I have been able to learn a great deal about the buildings, the artifacts, along with the personal stories that visitors have shared. In my short time here, I have been in awe of all the great artifacts that surround me daily, as well as curious about their use and circulation. Among the six buildings and countless artifacts, one artifact especially caught my attention.

The moustache cup is a drinking cup with a semicircular ledge inside. The ledge has a half moon-shaped opening to allow the passage of liquids and serves as a guard to keep moustaches dry. It was invented in the 1860s by a British potter named Harvey Adams who was born in 1835.

Moustaches flourished throughout the Victorian era. Often-times, great gobs of wax were melted and then applied to the moustache to keep it nice and stiff, with every hair in place. That is where a big problem lay; when steaming hot cups of tea or coffee were carried up to the mouth for sipping, the steam melted the wax and sent it right into the cup! Sipping hot tea or coffee, moustaches also often became stained. Finally, Harvey Adams, came up with an unusual invention, "the moustache cup". The cup had a ledge, called a moustache guard, across the cup. The pampered and waxed moustache then rested safe and dry on the guard while sipping a hot beverage through the opening.

This invention spread all over the European continent and soon, every famous potter was making new cups with details pertaining to their known style. With each potter creating their own version of this masculine tableware, the news of the moustache cup soon spread to America.

Between 1920 and 1930, moustaches progressively began to go out of fashion and because of this, moustache cup production slowed and finally faded out of history. Although authentic moustache cups are very hard to find, today the examples of Victorian male elegance are coveted and collected by a growing number of enthusiasts.
