Abandoned Catholic Cemetery

This abandoned cemetery is located on the south west corner of Lot 8 of the U Concession in Jocelyn Township. Lot 8 is a 100-acre Crown Land lot overgrown with trees and underbrush, but a small clearing can be seen from the U Line. This burial site was used in the early 1900's as a Roman Catholic Cemetery, up until at least 1910. It is now Government Property (Crown Land) as the Church does not pay taxes on it anymore. It is believed that there was once a church located here as well, and it was relocated in the 1950's, but we have no actual record on this.

There are two graves with markers, however several additional impressions in the earth indicate that there are other unmarked graves there as well. Records from Find-A-Grave indicate possibly 14 burials, as there are a few duplications listed.

Though we don't have much information on this grave site, for the sake of identification, when we did our cemetery binders, we listed it as the U Line Cemetery. Over the years, many have asked where this is located, so we are very pleased that we have had a sign erected "U Line Cemetery". Our thanks to Gord Hawdon for making the sign and the St Joseph Island Voyageurs for providing the post, which they have generously done for all our historical signs on the island.

THE TOWNSHIP OF TARBUTT CELEBRATES THE STICKNEY PIONEER CEMETERY

The Tarbutt Cemetery Board held a dedication ceremony for the historic Stickney Cemetery on Saturday, June 21, 2025.

Over the past several years, many community members have volunteered their time and resources to help restore the cemetery, including, but not limited to Tyler MacMillan, Eileen Osbourn, Peggy Sudaby, Jane Smith, and Barb Jalak, who was Chair of the Cemetery Board for a number of years.

Located at 300 Barr Road North in Desbarats, Stickney Cemetery is open to the public. It is an integral part of Tarbutt's history, now complemented by a newly installed information kiosk showcasing local heritage

The Tarbutt Cemetery Board and volunteers continue their efforts to restore the cemetery by identifying markers and preserving historical records, and the names of some of those buried there. If you know or may be able to assist Board members with the names of persons who may be buried in the Stickney Cemetery, please contact the Tarbutt Township Office at 705-782-6776. Board members would be very interested in any information available.

More information can be found on the website: www.tarbutt.ca/cemetery-board/

ST. JOSEPH ISLAND MUSEUM MOMENT

This SATURDAY yes SATURDAY is our annual Heritage Day event at the Museum. PLEASE NOTE: The event DAY and TIME have changed. Heritage Day is SATURDAY JULY 12 from 2-5. Last season we presented a dramatic interpretation about local people and events. It was such a smashing success that I decided we'd do something of that nature this season. I hadn't chosen a topic yet when Aaron Fisher contacted me and suggested his newly formed choir might like to be guests at Heritage Day. What a treat to have a live choir help us celebrate our Island Heritage. The St. Joseph Island Choral Society will be singing an original song written by Aaron. I recently asked Aaron to tell me what inspired him to write this song and he provided the following. "The St. Joseph Island Museum and the public libraries are great sources of inspiration and hints of little-known or forgotten stories of people who have shared this same land over the past hundred and thousands of years. That is where I found this account of an 1828 Great Lakes freight run gone amok. St. Joseph Island Choral Society sings at public events, Christmas tree lightings, AlgomaTrad evenings and local historic sites are places where we bring beautiful music to new audiences beyond the churches and concert halls where choirs usually sing. Message me on Facebook or email aarontfisher@hotmail.com if you are interested in joining us to sing at future events." So there was the inspiration for writing "Wreck of the Rum Ship Hackett", with a little research and digging in the archives I too found inspiration in this story to piece together a historic program. Imagine having to leave your home and setting sail on the Great Lakes in the month of November. That's just what the passengers of the Alice Hackett did. The schooner left Drummond Island on a stormy day and became Georgian Bay's first shipwreck. You'll learn the fate of some passengers which include the Lepine family Angelique, Therese and Pierre, innkeeper Alexander Fraser and Lewis Solomon, the son of a government interpreter. Over 100 years later we meet Reverend HJL Wooley, pastor of the Richards Landing Presbyterian Church who recounts the shipwreck and the conduct of its passengers, Reverend Wooley is a supporter of the growing Temperance Movement that is sweeping the country. Faye Stevens is our guest speaker and she will inform us about the connection St. Joseph Island had in the Temperance Movement. For our grand finale the St. Joseph Island Choral Society will sing a sea shanty in four part harmony inspired by the Alice Hackett. Along with this informative program we will have homesteader inspired picnic games to try, our Old Time Photo Booth will be open, dress up like an early Island settler and have your photo taken. Refreshments will be available for purchase. Join us and spend an afternoon looking back to yesteryear.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jocelyn Fire and First Response is having an Open House
Saturday July 19th, 10:00am - 2:00pm.
We'd like to invite you to drop by the #1 Fire Hall to:

- Meet our firefighters and first responders
- Have a look around the facility
- Check out some of our vehicles and equipment
- See some demonstrations of fire and safety gear
- Pick up some free fire safety information

If you're interested in volunteering, it's a perfect time to come out and see what we're all about. If you're a kid and like shiny trucks and cool gear, you're guaranteed a good time! We're located at 3670 5th Side Road, right beside the Jocelyn township office and Mountainview Centennial park. We hope to see you then!
